“ Grandma Talamantes was a gentle soul. I never heard her say one bad thing about anyone. That is one thing i wil try to learn from her. I loved her cooking. My favorite was her spanish rice! Two of my favorite memories are when she had a little dog called el caption. she would always yell at him. it made me laugh! The other was when i was fifteen i went down to tampa to visit family. Me and jacob went to get strawberry short cakes with grandma by the strwberry fruit stand by her house. we got the large and they were huge!! me jacob and grandma laughed about it in the car on the way home.

“ Where do I begin with memories? Grandma has been an inspiration to me my entire life. She was my rock. No matter how trying her life was she took it on with a smile. Grandma had faith like no other. She was a women filled with PURE LOVE for her family. I will take her strength with me as I grow old. I will raise my family with nothing, but love as she did. I will remember her silly little actions, her beautiful smile, the touch of her hands on my head when she said everything will be okay. Grandma no one can replace the spot in my heart I have just for you. Thank you Grandma for turning my life around. I'll try to remember that a decent woman is home by midnight hahahahaha You crack me up with that one. LOVE YOU CRUZIE <3
