“ Cindy you were one of my oldest and dearest friends. If I needed to remember anything about our past, all I would have to do is ask you and you would tell me how it went. Your memory was unbelievable. You could tell me who wrote songs, who sang them and most of the words. You checked on me often and was much better at that than I was. I miss you already but I am glad you didn't have to suffer long. I love you girl friend. Kaye
