“ It will soon be three years that he left us. For me, it feels like yesterday. He was a great man and like Wally said, He was a legend. He was my brother. He visited often and kept me company. Always had a new song. Most of them gospel in his last few years. They were as unique as his other songs. He had a God given gift and he gave him the glory. I love and miss him so.

Such fond memories....from playing together as kids to growing up and growing old. I never remember fighting with him as most siblings do. I only remember him always being kind. He came down south from Live Oak to help build my house that I moved into in 2008. From that time on, he would make trips down here to visit, filling my home with life, , fishing when he was able, and when he wasn't, sitting on the back porch and watching them in the water. Quite often, when I asked he would play his guitar and sing. I was always amazed at such talent. When he would arrive here from Live Oak, he would hug me tight, and when he started to leave, he hugged me tightly and told me how much he loved me and how much he had enjoyed being here. Sometimes after he left, I would find some money on the counter with a note that it was to help with the expense of him being here. After he went to heaven and I found out how small amount he had to live on, it broke my heart. Just the gas to come down here must have been such a sacrifice. I so love and miss my little brother!
