“ As everyone knows, Mr.Dan was the kindest man with a heart filled with love for the Lord, I have had so many conversations with him about Jesus and the path we take to follow him. Mr. Dan along with his beautiful wife, always left me with more faith in our savior, each time. Along with our shared Love for our Heavenly Father and his son, I was left with so many wonderful memories; from eating the delicious pie Dan would bake for me and my family, to picking on Brenda (in a loving way) when she couldn't hear us. I served as their waitress most times that I saw them but he was not a customer; he was family. I looked up to him as if he was my grandfather, he influenced me and gave me advice and I love him. Mr.Dan always made me smile, I will continue to every time I look back at the times I had with him and Miss Brenda. You don't get to choose your family but God sends you the people who feel like family, Mr Dan & Miss Brenda will always be family.

“ Dan wore his Air Force Dress Blues with pride at church and other military events. I too served in the Air Force with over 20 years and wanted to look as sharp as Dan so I purchased a new uniform with spit shine shoes. We attended several military events in the local area. A true warrior for God, family and the United States of America. Condolences go out to Brenda and family
