

Danny M. Vogleman

December 16, 2009

VOGLEMAN, Danny, 58, of Plant City, died December 16, 2009. He is survived by his mother Bonnie Vogleman, and siblings Kathie Douglass (Lawrence), Shannon Vogleman, and Tommy Vogleman (Paula). Services private.

Tribute Wall

RS

“ Dear Vogleman family....hello there and God Bless you all. When Danny passed away in 2009, i do not think that we had a computer. BUT we, or I, do have fond memories of Tommy, Danny, Kathy, and Shannon (telephone memories); i don't think that Shannon was born yet. One memory that i have is when Jack, Bonnie and the children who were then born....when they backed up out of Grandma and Grandpa Scott's driveway on their way to Florida. That would have been in the 1950's. It was very sad to see them leave. I was about the same age as those cousin/kids. I don't have many clear memories of Danny, but i know that i thought of him as a nice, cute kid. We, Mom & Dad and Billy Joe, lived with Byron and Edith Scott, Mom's parents, for around five years. That house is where i last saw and visited with Kathy and her husband, i think? We loved all of you and have missed you, Danny, and all of the Vogleman family for now decades. I think that now, some of the Vogleman relatives live in Andrews. P.S. I remember one time, when Jack and Bonnie may have been babysitting for me and Mom and Dad were probably Christmas shopping. Your mother, Aunt Bonnie, made some chili with pieces of tomato in it. I like it that way now, but back then as a kid i did not like to see tomato pieces in the chili. I was finicky! ((Spell-Check.)) God Bless you all and IOOk forward to seeing Danny and you all in Heaven.

Rodger Smith - April 14, 2025 at 02:34 PM

“ Our deepest sympathy our with your family and we shall pray for your peace at this diffcult time love deb and dave##imported-begin##deb and dave galloway##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM

“ i want to thank everyone who as taken care of danny. he was a great uncle and will miss him alot. He is in a better place and i am sure jack is take great care of him too.##imported-begin##justin vogleman##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM

“ I was the paperboy for Danny's family in the late 1960's. I lived on 24th Street and Danny was a friend of me, my brothers Chip and Tom, and the Miller brothers, Bill and David. Danny was a really nice guy to be around. Haven't been in contact with him since we got out of school, but have good memories of him. Please accept my condolences as well as that of my brothers.##imported-begin##Doug Ure##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM

“ Danny will truly be missed. I worried about him walking so many miles each day; but then I worried more when he couldn't. Rest now my friend. And May Light Perpetual Shine Upon You! Dixie White at Epilepsy Services Foundation##imported-begin##Dixie White##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM

“ Bonnie, I just talked to Danny this week. He must have died the day after I talked with him. I have known Danny since I came to the Foundation in 1988. He struggled all the years I have known him. Each year was always a difficult one for Danny. Finally, I think he has that peace he was looking for. I will remember Danny who had the courage to go on despite his difficulties. I will remember Danny as having a wonderful sense of humor. I will remember Danny as a person who appreciated the little things of life. I will miss Danny! Please accept my sympathy. My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. Sincerely, Tom Orth Epilepsy Services Foundation##imported-begin##Thomas Orth##imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:31 AM