“ As boys we fought each other as only brother's can. Best friend and arch rival at the same time and always protecting each other regardless of the cost. That's how it is to be brother's. The good times were a blast and the tough ones we walked thru together. I was blessed enough to be able to tell him that I loved him minutes before he passed. I thank God for that. Suzy and my nephews please know that I will always be there for you. I love you little bro. See you when I get there...Bruce

“ *Being new to Watson Clinic, I had the pleasure of knowing Darryl for about a year and half and in that brief time he treated me as someone he had known all his life. Every time I came by the clinic he had a smile on his face and always made sure to greet me and say hello and who can forget his jokes over lunch. God Bless you Darryl and your family.
You will be missed my friend!*

“ I knew Darryl from work at Watson Clinic Nuc Med dept., boy was he ever a bright , cheerful man.
I don't think I ever saw Darryl without a smile on his face and a joke on his lips. He was someone who always went out of his way to make someone else's day a little brighter. He will be missed by all who were touched by his laughter and kind heart.

“ "I am so very sorry for your loss. Darryl was such a fun loving person. I met him when I was a teenager visiting my cousin, Kim, in Plant City for the summer. All three of us climbed his parent's big tree in their yard, walked around the neighborhood and spent hours talking. I can still see him laughing that wonderful laugh!! He had such a generous heart and he was so kind to me. I can only imagine how wonderful it was for his children to have a father with his personality and love of life. I know he will be dearly missed. God bless you all." Gretchen Wilson-Tuck, Cochran, Georgia

“ Darryl was a dear friend. We worked together for over 10 years. I guess my favorite memories of him were all the times we teased and picked on each other. He was very good at dishing it out, but he could take it , too. He had a great sense of humor. He loved to play pranks on people and we loved to talk about the things we had done to each other in the past. We would laugh just as hard later as we did at the time it happened. I am really going to miss being able to share those memories with Darryl, but I will always have them in my heart. I think the most important things in Darryl's life were his family and friends. He enjoyed life and brought joy to the lives of many others. Love and miss you my almost cousin. Erin
