R.I.P. David Bowers you lived your life as a hard working Godly man. Tolerant of your sons by marriage. Loving husband to Sharon Hageman Bowers. You're in heaven now the worries of the ungodly are behind you.

“ To Pat, Sylvia, Gay and the the entire Bower Family

We are so sorry for your loss. David was a wonderful, happy and very loving and gentle man. He will be greatly missed. But he is now in the presence of God and he will always be remembered. You will all be in our prayers.

*Love in Christ,
The Battcher's,
Joe, lAlice & Tiffany*

“ Hi, it's Clark Barnes. Sorry I won't be able to make it to the services. Just wanted you to know that my wife Diane and I will be remembering (praying) for all of you on Tuesday.

It's been a while Linda since we traveled together to BUT (remember the Miss & Mr BUT contest). I am retired from the Post Office and live in Town & Country. Diane and I have been married about 15 years. I have two boys, Darin & Derek, who both live in Rapid City, SD. Derek was in the Air Force, met and married a girl from there and got stuck. Darin and he were always close (almost like twins), so he quit his job with Publix and moved to Rapid to be with his brother. It's been a good move for them both. Darin didn't have good luck with girls (engaged twice) and has never married. Derek and Tracy have three girls, Whitney, Kaylee and Emily (oldest to youngest).

Hope to see you next year at the 50th Class Reunion.

I'm on Facebook or you can reach me at gobbler63@live.com if you would like to say Hi!

May the Love of Jesus Christ caress you and your family tomorrow.

Your Friend,

Clark
