“ Dear Kathy,

I know that words are inadequate at a time like this but I wanted you to know how very sorry I am for your loss. The loss of a spouse is a tragic event and I know the pain and suffering you are experiencing.

It is times like this that our faith is put to the test. We know that we must accept his passing and give thanks for the wonderful life he lived. As sad as it will be, you will always have the memory of him to hold in your heart.

The Bible reminds us that "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted." I pray that this will be especially true for you as you mourn your loss.

I pray that God will give you the strength to see you through this sad and difficult time. My thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family.

“ When I remember the scripture in Psalms 84 when King David said "I'd rather be a door keeper in the house of my God....." I think of Uncle Dave, he loved God and that's where you could often find him, working tirelessly in God's house. Uncle Dave was given such a gift of working with wood - Jesus was a carpenter so I'm sure they will have a lot to talk about. He was a positive Bible toting, scripture quoting prayer warrior and definitely one whom you'd want to be on your team. He will be missed - but if anyone deserves to enter into the Lord he does. Love & prayers, Christie

Losing someone we love is nothing easy, but knowing that we have been able to be a part of the life of that person, we can realize that we are blessed to have been able to share in his life before he went to rest in eternal salvation. My condolences and may the Lord give you peace.

*We are so incredibly sorry and we wish more than anything we could be there. You are in our constant prayers and we send all of our love.
