“ David,
I love you and will miss you so much everyday of my life!!
I will always remember you as my fiercest protector from when I was a newborn baby in Cross City and you wanted to show me to your playmate and he bit me. Mom always told me that she heard you tell your friend, “NO, that’s my BABY!
To when we were sent to Pinellas Park Elementary School Summer Camp and the bigger, older girls were meanies. You would always stop by to make sure I was okay and would always walk me home. We shared a lifetime of loving siblings but also good friends! From loving to go to Fort Homer W. Hesterly Armory to watch wrestling and in our later years riding on our Harley’s out and about!
All our celebrations spent together with family!!
I will miss our conversations and you always ended each one with “I love you, Sis”.
I know I will always grieve the huge loss of you, my dear brother. But will always remember how blessed I was to have you, love you and thank God for blessing me with a brother like you!!
My love will always be with you until one fine day I will see you again.

“ Uncle Dave is not my genetic uncle but you never would know. He always treated me like just another niece. Spending time with Irene and Dave was such a wonderful time in my childhood. They were always there to yell at me to keep my elbows off the table and to tease me with love. I will always love my uncle and I’m so grateful for the love he gave me.

“ Uncle Dave has a warm place in my heart. My childhood memories of him are a bright spot. I remember holding onto him as we raced down what felt like a never ending road on a four wheeler. I remember admiring his motorcycle as a kid and thinking it was the coolest thing. I remember hearing him name cows after different types of steak and thinking it was hilarious. I remember always looking forward to a Christmas Eve visit. I’m thankful for those joyous memories. Uncle Dave and aunt Irene have the kind of relationship that fills me with admiration and awe. A life filled with love is an amazing thing.

“ David, my little brother, gave us many laughs and good times. My childhood was filled with his crazy funny sense of humor. David loved his family deeply and was proud of each of them. He fought hard for his life and shared his love generously. He'll live on in our hearts and through his children, friends and those who knew him.

“ We fondly remember David, from his big truck cab outside our door in Omaha to his happy comments when we marched in a St. Patrick's Day Parade to his wonderful hospitality at his home on Polo Club Lane. Along with Irene, they made a welcoming presence on our many trips to Florida. Your next run will be the best there is, go with God.
