“ Dear Family, I know the words don't ease the loss, but know that I am thinking of all of you at this time. I remember the summer Dave stayed with us on the farm. He was there to earn money and I'm sure Uncle Mark made him earn it. It was great having one of my cousins around that I only got to see maybe once a year and my brother had so much fun. They competed on everything! We all have wonderful memories of David and we all loved him dearly. I will be with you in heart as you say good-by. Love to you all, Cathy

“ I'm so very sorry for your loss and sending my condolences to Glenda, JoLynne, Deanna, Janice, and Butch. David was a good man and Rhett and I loved him. I remember all the times that Rhett would meet David and Glenda for the Gator Nationals. They had such a good time! Rhett considered David not just a cousin by marriage but a true friend. After Rhett passed away, I had to have surgery. David and Glenda were at the hospital everyday watching over me. It was so appreciated. David, we will miss your stories and jokes but most of all, we will miss you!
