“ Oh, David I will miss you so! I remember when we were teens and out back playing with the soccer ball. We were kicking it back and forth and you decided you were going to balance on the ball. You held it there for a few seconds and then whomp! The ball rolled, your feet were straight out and down you went. You were fine and we laughed hysterically!! I can still laugh thinking about that. You loved to make people laugh! Love you David, always have and always will!! Rest easy my sweet brother❤️
