There are no words to express of why this happened, only God knows. He has a plan and it seems like he's picking the best angels first. I knew of David when my nephew Travis, Chris, Bernie & David hung out in school. It's neat to see how they have each grown into adults and now have their families. He's been blessed with a wonderful family and wonderful parents that have raised him. He always had a smile whenever I saw him. And now he is smiling even brighter in heaven with God. May God hold his family in his hands and comfort them through this tough time. May they also be comforted by their dad's love.
