“ Debi,
My heart is breaking. God has chosen to take you home too soon. We grew up in a loving family in a small town in Arkansas. Love, Family and caring for others were molded into our lives. You took these traits to another level in your time with us. Many, as I, will miss your loving heart ❤️. Our Family, not always together separated by miles most of our lives, but we always knew that the love we shared was forever near. Your ability to care for others was your treasure to this world and will be greatly missed along with your loving smile.
I miss my Big Sister!
Love, David

Debi, I hark back to younger days. Seeming to live at Reelfoot in the summer. All the trips across the Big River at Thanksgiving. All about family. Though the years separated us, the memories remain alive. I've always treasured those memories and will forever.
Rest in Peace.
Your cousin

“ Butch, Curtis and I are so deeply sorry for your loss of your loving wife and best friend Debbie. We remember her big smile and lively eyes, always a kind word and a great recipe to share! We hold you close in our thoughts and prayers as always. We want to be sure you know you can lean on us for whatever you may need. Love you!

“ I remember meeting Debbie for the first time. My first thought was "Oh Lord, Butch has met his match!" Debbie was funny, kind, warm and never met a stranger. I found it so easy to talk to her. With me growing up with 3 younger brothers and the oldest and only girl, I appreciated being able to talk to her like a regular sister. I love you Debbie and will miss you physically, but I know you are one of the Lord's Angels now, and that gives me great comfort. We will meet again in a better place than this Earthly one! I have prayed for blessings and comfort for your family. Allie Maiocchi, Debbie's sister in law

“ I will never forget the time Debbie helped me keep a visit to Fran a surprise. My 9 hour drive had minor delays...but Debbie kept the secret (not an easy task) and kept Fran home (also not an easy task) and the joy of the surprise was just beautiful. Debbie had a heart of gold and loved her family and friends completely. I pray the family is given strength and comfort. I will always remember her kindness and that smile. She's an angel now.

“ Debbie was one of the sweetest women I have ever known. She was always the unsung Hero. Always the first to help, and last to leave. She was loyal, devoted, and loving. She had a huge heart, she would give you what ever you needed. Her family was always paramount, but still found time for others. Her death is such a great loss to so many. I know God recognized Debbie's worth, I'm certain he was in need of a Special Angel. She is now serving in a higher capacity. I hope we can find solice in knowing Debbie is watching over all of us. May God hold, protect, and bless Debbie for all eternity. I don't know anyone who deserves it more than her. God bless my friend, I love you.
