“ Kenneth and I visited with Larry and his family this afternoon. Larry was our ringbearer when Kenneth and I got married 60 years ago. It did our hearts good to see all of the family and know that they all love the Lord very much. They know Deb is in heaven rejoicing and in no more pain. We can see the faith shine through Larry listening to him talk about Jesus and his everyday walk with him. We are so sorry for your loss, we know we will all see Deb again one day. Dear Family, we love each and everyone of you very much, only a phone call away if you need anything. Larry has always had a very special place in his Aunt Melba's heart and always will. I love you.

“ I will miss you Deb and our talks. You came into our family when I was very young, and I will cherish all of our times together. You are no longer in pain and with all of our loved ones in heaven now. Sending prayers to my brother, Larry, my nieces, Shawn and Michele and their families. I love all of you so very much.

“ I first met Deb and Larry in the mid seventies at South Florida Baptist Hospital along with Larry's mother Virginia. Deb was such a sweet person, I am so sorry to hear of her passing but she is in the presence of her savior Jesus.
