“ My baby was a free spirited young woman. She loved life and made the best of what she could. I cannot think of anyone that she did not impress with her laughter and her love. She was kind and giving. She had so many friends. I was impressed at the number of people who came to see her one last time. I shouldn't have been surprised because once you met my Dee Dee, you could feel the warmth that she had for others. Her greatest love in life was her son, Grant. We miss her so much and it is so hard to understand why she had to go. I know that she did not want to leave us. Her death was tragic and left of devastated. I love you baby with all my heart. Mom
