“ My sis', you showed me the true examples of unconditional love and God's forgiveness. Because of your advice and the way you demonstrated your true faith in God, faith in the power of love and faith in others, I was able to handle one of the scariest, most challenging and life-changing events of my adult life. Without the love, encouragement and empathy of you and your dear husband, Aaron, my ability to truly love, forgive and release a loved one into peace and God's grace would have been almost impossible. You were an angel on this earth...now, ascend, fly, free, light and with joy and serenity. <3
