*My earliest memory of sweet Desiree goes back to when she was around 8yrs old. She was such a loving happy little girl. She grew up to a beautiful young lady. I'm deeply saddened for your loss. My prayers and thoughts are with you Cindy and Shirley. Praying God gives You and Your family strength to get through this horrific time in your life. May you rest in God's peace and comfort. Much Love

“ Desiree, I know all these kinds of things are for the living but they do make us feel somewhat better. It's been just over a year now since you've passed and I found out today. Words can't describe the heartache I feel, I'm truly lost for words. I can and will never forget the first time we met, we clicked immediately and became fast friends. Your family, and especially your daughter, are in my thoughts and I know she will grow up with endless stories about how truly amazing, smart, talented, beautiful, and extremely funny her mother was. I loved you the minute I met you and I will continue to do so until whatever comes next comes. I love you boint and saying you will be missed is an understatement xoxoxo. .

“ Desiree and I met almost 7 years ago. I loved her spunk from the get go. We grew really close on an all girls trip to Gennie Springs back in 2013. Let me repeat that for you guys! ALL GIRLS, CAMPING, IN THE RAIN! Needless to say the whole trip was kind of a disaster. EXCEPT for the last day. Desiree and I decided to stay an extra day, just her and I. We floated down the river, and made our way back up to the top to float down again, Des came up with this amazing idea to fill up a large glass bottle with water and use it as an anchor! And it worked perfectly! We just hung out on that river all day while strangers floated passed us! "How are you guys doing that" they would ask. "With our minds" Desiree would reply! We had such a great time that day, laughing and really getting to know each other. She was a bright light, and its heartbreaking that her light has burned out. She will truly be missed by so many! Thinking of her family and her beautiful little Kinsley in this awful heartbreaking time.
