“ 23 January 2022

I remember Cousin Diana and Cousin Linda when I was a preschooler living in Indiantown. When my cousins came for a visit from Tampa, it was nothing less than pure love. Cousin Diana was so sweet and treated me like an angel. We did not see each other often, but my memory of her, once again, was pure LOVE. The only conversation I remember overhearing was with my sister, the late Bonnie, was that she loved, the actress, Betty Grable. Strange, Diana passed on her Aunt Helen and Uncle Frankie's wedding anniversary, my late parents. To the family, may your grief be fast, and may her memory last a lifetime. Your distant cousin, Francis from Texas.
