“ *One of the best women I've had in my life. She put up with a lot out of us crazy girls. She always had our best interest at heart. We knew just how much she loved us. She always had an encouraging word when times were tough. I'm blessed to have known her. She always made me the best Ham and cheesy potatoes when I wanted them. She will be missed.
Tina if you need me I am here. Sending love and prayers to the family.*
