“ Jimmy, I am so sorry that your mom is not with us anymore. I know how much she loved you. I will always remember how her face lit up when she came to visit, how she would smile when she started her sentences with "Do you remember?" and all the pictures she took. The time I will remember most is the first time she saw Emily walking. She couldn't take her eyes off her.

Roger, I will always remember how proud Donna was of the things you built. She always showed me pictures of your projects when she came to visit. I know this is devastating for you and I wish I knew the perfect thing to say to help alleviate your sorrow but just know in your heart that she is safe in God's hands and you will always have that special bond with her that only you can have. Have peace in knowing that she will always be with you.

Your appearance in our family was such a blessing like the angels that you loved, you learned there characteristics and copied them to a tee, your unconditional love, understanding, acceptance, faith and beautiful spirit captured us all like the fluttering of angels wings and when your time came on there wings they carried you home..
