“ I knew Donna from Derry, N.H. We lived together for a few years in Derry, then we drifted apart. She was always such a giggly, Happy person and would break out in laughter at the drop of a hat. A poem I made just for her, Donna... wherever you are..this is for you, girl!

🌸 Donna Quincy – A Beautiful Soul 🌸

*In the light of her smile, the shadows fade,
A warmth so pure, no night could invade.
Donna Quincy, a name softly sung,
Like a breeze through the fields where spring has begun.*

*Her laughter, a melody, sweet and clear,
Could calm every worry, and draw others near.
Her kindness, a lantern that lit every road,
A heart overflowing, a love that bestowed.*

*Golden hair like morning rays,
Eyes that held a thousand days—
Of joy, of strength, of dreams held tight,
Of dancing through the darkest night.*

*Not just her beauty, seen on the face,
But the depth of her soul, her gentle grace.
She gave and she loved without needing a reason,
A heart that bloomed in every season.*

*So here's to Donna, a spirit so true,
Who painted the world with a brighter hue.
Though photos may fade and time may flee,
Her light lives on in you and me.*

“ Donna has been a large part of my life all my life, there wasn't a holiday, or a large party she ever missed when I was a kid, she made me my first photo album, that I still have to this day, She always was there for our mom, and dad, and always always had the most love and compassion for almost all our family!! My goodness, her and I have had so many silly laughs, I am goin got miss her wisdom, and mostly just our 2week conversations about anything..She was the most beautiful soul, and her energy was just so positive...I pray that she always know how much I love her, and How much she meant to myself and my kids! My kids loved her and always looked foward to seeing her every year especially when she'd come in the fall! She was so much more than just a family member, she was my sister, and my friend!!
