“ Dorothy my friend ,I'll always remember when we drove our bus in new Tampa together and the day I met you I had taken your kids home from Wharton high school and when I got back to bonito middle school is when you asked me how the kids were and I told you my bus look like it had snow ,I know they had thrown paper all over the bus and you said to me don't worry I'll take care of them tomorrow, and we became friends from that day forward,I will miss you but I have great memories of driving our bus and doing the Bus rodeo ,RIP love you Alice Soden
