“ Lieutenant Commander Doyle
"Stanton""Stan""Dad""Pop-Pop""Uncle Buddy""Sir"Porter, literally my oldest friend is at rest after 91 years. He will be missed by many. I admired him for so many things,including his faith, determination AND spunk .Having shared my favorite Cracker Jacks fortune," Your determination will make you succeed."He told me in no uncertain terms that NOONE could ever tell him he couldn't accomplish something. He always spoke kindly to me and told me he loved me when we departed-and the feeling was mutual. Although he wasn't my Dad,having lost my Dad when I was 20,he sure helped fill a void that was left. Whenever I hear a Rays game,I'll think of him in his recliner watching the game.
Strange,but I can still hear his voice. He always asked how I was doing each day,and he always spoke kindly about his Peggy. I know they loved each other very much& that now they're reunited,with little "Gnomeo" nestled close.May he rest in peace and always be remembered at his happiest- either tinkering with something that needed fixing,or on the water or with his family.
