“ We are so sorry to hear of Duane's passing. We were recently at the funeral of our cousin Curtis Hancock and were watching the door sure that we would see our old friend only to find out that he was gone as well.

Barbara, Bruce, Tommy, Harold, Carol Sue we were only kids but the friendships we shared have stayed with us and warmed our hearts many times with laughter of those days.

God Bless You

“ To the brothers and sisters, I send my condolenses for the loss of your brother Duane, and to his children I pray for your healing and strength during this time. I pray you all will let this remind you how important it is to support each other. Love one another because we are not promised tomorrow. Bruce, Mary Ellen, Dale and Duane would want you to. Bless you all. Love you all.
