“ You were definitely one of a kind and I for one as well as any many others wouldn't have you any other way. Dwayne loved his family and motorcycles, aggravating Dara (because he could) and if you were with Dara and he was there, you were not immuned from his jokes, humor and or sarcasm. But his was so easy to tolerate. I loved him and he had away to make you smile rather you wanted to or not. Soar high now honey. Love you always.

“ I knew Wayne through my brother, Greg Hagan, and the "Springhead Mafia." He was always such a nice guy. Although I have lost touch and not seen Wayne in 30+ years, the memories will always be with me. Prayers for the family during this very difficult time. God bless, Barbara Hagan-Goff.

“ My name is Lisa Weyand-Wilkins and I've knew Dwayne for about 35 years. I wanted to share a few memories that Dwayne and I had. I guess we really got to be friends when I was in the 8th grade, him being in 9th at Tomlin Jr. High. For the most part we seemed to know most all of the same people back then. My sisters and I sang in a trio called "The Weyand Sisters" When he would see me, he would always tell me how well I sang and would just start singing some country song at the top of his lungs. It was really funny to me! Dwayne was always willing to help anybody and everybody, if he could, and very happy to do so too! He will be missed here by many people but he is home now with no pain or sorrow ever again! R.I.P. Dwayne, your in good hands now!

“ Prayers for peace and comfort to the family in this time of grief.

My husband and I graduated with Dwayne, he was so much fun!

That smile :)

Never a dull moment with him around.

So many funny stories that would have us belly laughing and in tears.

Robby had his to tell me and I had mine to tell him.

We got to see him last year at Tonys yearly NASCAR party.

We reminisced and laughed a lot.

Rest in peace,

I have so many memories of Wayne, I first meet him when he was just a little boy I was dating his aunt and Waynes parents Earl & Jean wanted to go to the stock car races so we baby set for them and we hit it off right away Wayne would set on one side and Sandra on the other side of me and I would tell them jokes and that's when me and Wayne first started laughing together. WE worked together at times with his dad and we were all three always laughing. Even though me and there aunt divorced they still claimed me as part of the family. Wayne and I rode dirt bikes and street bikes together. Even though I was 14 years older than him they acted like I was a young as they were. always saying come on lets go. It would take me days to tell all the memories. He was my friend and my cuz. As I set here in my man cave this song comes to me Precious Memories how they linger how they ever flood my soul in the stillness of the midnight. Rest in peace and our memories will be in my heart always.

“ So many great ones, But one that still cracks me up was wen we were riding 4-wheelers thru the orange grove by the house. We were hauling ass and wayne said"Duck!!!! Well i didn't, needless to say i was flat on my behind with a freaking green orange in my mouth and tree limbs in my hair. Laughed all day about that, still laugh when i think about it. Loved You so much, more than some may ever know. See you again one day my cousin and friend

“ When I was growing up Dwayne and I became close, however the last several years that changed and we didn't get along as well as we use to. I had forgotten the fun loving man he use to be. I can't tell you how many times people would tell me " your brother is crazy". He was so happy back in the day, always making you laugh at something. My heart is torn, he's really gone, and my memories and that of others is all we have left. I wish I could tell him I love him and I would kill to hear him say he loved me too. RIP BROTHER.

God broke the mold when he made Dwayne (Wayne , Leroy Kenevil) . He was a kind , fearless and free spirited guy . One of the most unique people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing . He always kept me laughing . He had a way about him like no other. He loved his family and if you knew him , you know he loved his friends too . Never got to mushy or serious about much , always joking . I am broken hearted for those who loved him but have some peace knowing he's in a better place . Your legacy of life will live on through those who you let know you . Thank you for the part of your life you shared with me , bye for now , Carol
