“ Grandma my family will miss you dearly, its going to be hard going to your house without you there sitting on the porch. I am glad your pain and suffering is over and you, grandpa, uncle tom and little grandma can sit back and watch all the crazy stuff the families get into. Love you lots from Melinda, Robert, Bradley, Kenny, and Chloe!

I have been a friend of the family for many years. I remember Mrs. McCoy picking up the kids at Dover School. She always had a smile on her face and I enjoyed so much talking with her. Her family was so important to her and she was always so involved with family. She was a special, wonderful and beautiful lady who will be missed every day. Rest in Peace Mrs. McCoy.
