“ It saddens me that you are gone, but you can finally be with the love of your life. You may not be here anymore but you will never be forgotten. You and Granny taught me what family really means. I will never forget that. I will never forget all the jokes, laughs, and fun times when I was growing up that we shared. I will never forget you. Rest in peace, Grandpa. You will truly be missed.

“ My favorite memories are of you teaching me to fish, popcorn & HeeHaw, You sleeping in your recliner and Grandma giggling and saying, "Watch this," as she flipped the channel so we could watch you say, "I was watching that!", it always made us laugh! Pay per view wrestling at my old house, how you could peel an apple without breaking the skin, the summer we spent in West Virginia and you stopping on the side of the road on the way home to get Granny her jar of mountain clay. The smell of Old Spice and coffee. How you loved my Mama like one of your own and always told me I looked like Granny. Irreplacable and much loved!!!

“ My condolences to the family in this sad time. May you find comfort in our promise for Mr. Thompson at Rev. 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
