“ A finer man, you'll never meet. A true southern gentleman that loved his family. I remember riding his strawberry-picker and enjoyed every minute of it.....I remember him starting a lot of his sentences with (a feller) while chewing his gum. He will be missed , but left a lot of good memories...

I was honored to call him my uncle. he was a fine man in every sense of the word. I remember when I was growing up sneaking into the strawberry fields and sneaking a few just to eat. I remember riding in his pickup truck as a child. He lived a good life and glad that he just went to sleep and god welcomed him happily. Good man. Uncle Ed, I love you and you will be missed dearly. Niece. Teresa
