“ Aunt Liz (great aunt) was the glamour one of the bunch. She was always had her sequines, red nails and all that torquoise jewelry. I always thought she was the neatest with her style. My mama (Margie and her sisters Dixie and Aunt Dora) were always ready for Liz to come with Cora Lee for their road trips around picking peachers, figs, black beries and plums for their jellies and jams. AND don't forget tubs and tubs of corn and butter beans to put up. They worked hard ... laughed about all the times they have shared. They enjoyed each other with all those summers visits to Georgia for the haul!
I told Aunt Liz, last year in Donalsonville at the family reunion that everything had changed with so many of them that had already left us, not knowing she would not be there againJ. May the memories you have of her give you peace. She will be missed.

“ In memory of the BEST GRANNY EVER! Instead of summer camps, after school programs I had the honor of spending them with Granny! Picking & putting up fresh veges, making jams, pies and pani-cakes, eating warm biscuits and syrup EVERY day after school while watching Litte House on the Prarie. Getting beat with the famous fly swatter for calling Conway Twitty, Conway Titty! LOL Dancing outside to all her 8 tracks she played in the old red mercury that matched her finger nails perfectly! Playing cards until wee hours in the morning, my first fish on a cane pole, my first elderberry, and there were many first time experiences shared with my wonderful Granny! May you finally REST IN PEACE! Thank you for all the wonderful memories and for being my best friend from another generation! You made me the woman I am today! I will forever be grateful for your time here on earth! You will be in my heart FOREVER!###imported-begin##Toni Slmonds##imported-end##
