This is the last picture that was taken of Aunt Faye..They had went to mom and dad's 50th wedding anniversary party. She was always there for things such as that...Aunt Faye used to love to sing in the choir..We shared a few christmas cantata's together and we always had choir practice together..She always was making things for people. I still have a bracelet that she made for me when we were going to church together..She will be sadly missed...I love you Aunt Faye, R.I.P

Mrs Morris will be surely missed in this world, but God truly gained an awesome person in his choir and I know that he is now getting the best pound cake that can be found. You are in our thoughts & prayers.
