*It has been a long time since I saw you, my children were small, and we meet at the waffle house, you were driving for Publix, It was hard to stay in touch but you were never forgotten, and never will be.

My prayers are with all of the family and the friends. God will see each of you thought this time of loss, just trust in him. If I can do anything to help please contact me. Love Always, Frankie*

*“ I remember the time when Lloyd rode behind me on my bicycle and got his foot caught. His grandmother really got on my case. I am so sorry for the neighborhood's loss of the little tow headed boy.

“ I remember coloring Easter Eggs on his back porch, and the elaborate nativity scenes he would set up at Christmas. Miss you Papa!
