“ *Elsie has left her family here on earth and joined her family in heaven. We rejoice in the fact that she is no longer fighting the pain and suffering of cancer. Yet, the heartache, pain, loneliness and emptiness that her leaving has left in us is undeniable and at times almost unbearable. May the lessons that she taught you guide be your in all that you do. May the memories of the joy, laughter, and love that she shared with you will help to fill your heart and give you comfort. In this way she will always be with you. Love to you through Jesus Christ. “ I did not know that Elsie passed away until this morning when I was checking the obituaries online. Please forgive me for not being at the funeral. Elsie was a wonderful person who loved the Lord. She will be missed here on this earth but I am so thankful that she is with our Savior today. We will be praying for the family.

“ Elsie Barrow Holland became my "Aunt Elsie" when she married into the family. Although the marriage many years ago, she still remained a part my family. She was a big part of my "growing up" years and I have many wonderful memories with her. I was her flower girl in her wedding (sorry Aunt Elsie, I didn't drop the flower petals....they were mine ;). This led to many Christmas's together. Many camping trips (always getting stuck). Boating on the Suwannee River (sorry Lisa, Keith, and I ate all the Pluck-it Cake). Sanibel Island and crab shala. Picking peas, beans, and berries....like it or not. She curled my hair with perm rollers once and I looked like Shirley Temple. She took me to see the movie Grease for the first time and I still love it! I could go on and on with the wonderful memories I have of my Aunt Elsie. I'm so thankful that God put her in my life not only as an aunt, but as part of my church family and as my sister in Christ. I know she is standing in the presence of our Lord and Savior and that is where I find my comfort. Love you aunt Elsie ❤️

*Oh and I can't leave out our trip to Mexico and climbing the pyramids!
What an adventure that was 😊*

“Family and Faith were the foundation upon which Elsie built her life. She was a warm, caring colleague and you could always count on her for a smile and a word of encouragement. When I needed a prayer warrior I went to Elsie and she never failed to support my family and me in prayer. She is missed every day but her loving spirit will always be with us.

*RIP my dear Elsie, you will be truly missed! What wonderful memories I have of such a wonderful loving and caring person! I will always remember the wonderful time we had at the cousins re-union last summer (2015) forever in my HEART! May God Bless the Family as you all go through this difficult time in your lives, but hold onto the wonderful memories as they will get you get through the days ahead.
Love to you all!
