“ Esther will always be missed for the good that she brought to all of us at Brandon Walk In Bingo. When she would attend a birthday party or a church cookout, Esther would always remember her friends at the bingo hall and bring us workers a plate of some good Southern Cooking. She would share with us anything that was hers. The World Has Lost A Good Person And The Lord Has Received Another Blessed Soul.

“ All the conversations Esther and I had keep going through my mind. How I used to enjoy when she came to visit me at work and we would solve the world's problems. The government just would not listen to us!! Not only were we lucky to have enjoyed Esther's delicious pound cakes and mouth watering pancakes, we were blessed with her love and friendship. She always had time for others and always willing to help.
You could always count on Esther!!!
Oh how she loved her family.
I will miss Aunt Esther and her friendship.
I am praying for the family

“ She was the constant. Always there, always caring for others, always speaking her mind. I loved that about her! Coffee, blonde and sweet... just like her. Pound Cakes that cannot be duplicated by anyone else. The sound of her sweet voice in the choir. Missing you so! Love you Esther.

“ My BINGO girl. I love you lady. You made me smile and you were great company while we donated our money to the B.I.N.G.O. I am going to miss giving you a hug when I saw you, listening to your funny stories about your grandbabies and you picking fun at those who had no self control banging on the table win they were losing.lol.. That was funny stuff. We definately lost a great person when you decided to go home to the Lord. You will always be remembered.
