“ Mr Brock is the father of my closest friend Greg and I had the honor of being around him since high school. He was always such a strong and quiet man and displayed such love and pride in his boys. When I enlisted in the Marine Corps and graduated boot camp I came home and he seemed almost as proud as if I was one of his own. Then before I left he gave me the dress blues he wore during his service to wear during my service. He was a good man and will be sorely missed. Semper Fidelis.

“ One of my best memories of Ellis is when me and my family went to Florida and stayed with him and Lucille and just sitting under the grapefruit tree and talking with him.

I will always remember Ellis as a man that loved to be outside, I know when he was at his home in the mountains he was always outside working, even just a few weeks ago while I was working at his home on Chestnut Mountain he would lay on his front porch for awhile and then get up and start racking his yard, then go lay down for a little while and get up again and weed eat a little while even though he was not really able to. It will not be the same to go to Chestnut Mtn and not get to see him.

*To the family my thoughts and prayers are with you
