“ Eva, my lifelong neighbor, my lifelong friend we have been through so much through the years. I will miss all of our trips mini Vacay whether they be long or short or amateur food critic grading restaurants. I will truly miss that. I will miss us laughing at simple and stupid things, for no reason at all just laughing and having a good time, especially enjoying each other's company. I will miss all the meals and all the love you have put in everything for me and my family and the boys let's just face it life will be a lot different without you, breathe easy my friend.

“ I almost called her today but then remembered she wouldn't be there to answer. I figure that will be the case many times in the months ahead as I try to figure out how to navigate life without her. I am so grateful for the time we had together, and that out of all the grandmothers I could have gotten, and great-grandmothers my boys could have had, God made sure we got Memaw. She is missed incredibly and loved beyond measure.
