

Mrs. Evelyn Edwana Fried

July 1, 2015

FRIED, Evelyn Edwana, passed away peacefully on July 1, 2015 at the age of 81. She was the second daughter of Edward and Nina Snowden (Wade). Edwana grew up in Plant City, Florida where she attended the First Baptist Church and graduated from Plant City High School. In 1951 Edwana was selected as the Queen of the local Strawberry Festival. After high school she attended X Ray Technology school in Louisville, Kentucky where she met and married her husband John Kenneth Fried (Jack) in 1953. The family moved to Hollywood, Florida in 1959. While her husband built his career with the phone company, Edwana built her career raising three children. The home was filled with love, always clean, and dinner brought the family together each evening. In Hollywood, the family was active in Taft Street Baptist Church and Sheridan Hills Baptist Church. When the children were older she worked as an aide helping handicapped children in the local schools. The family enjoyed camping with friends, with special memories of time in the Florida Keys. When the children were grown, Edwana and Jack purchased a motor home and traveled extensively throughout the United States and they also made trips to Europe. Edwana visited Alaska, Japan and the Panama Canal. After 36 years in Hollywood, they moved to Brooksville, Florida and built a new home. They were active in the Faith Evangelical Presbyterian Church. Later she moved to live with her son in Port St. Lucie, Florida and finally with her daughter in Bettendorf, Iowa. Edwana is preceded in death by her parents and her husband Jack. She is survived by her son Louis Fried (Debbie), daughter

Cindy Huber (Steve), son Kenneth Fried (Cheryl), five grandchildren, Andrew Huber, Chris Huber, Ryan Rodriguez, Dalton Fried and Sarah Huber, and her sisters Catherine Head, Gail Wilder and Judy Ennis (Larry). A memorial service will be held on Saturday August 15th, at the Hopewell Funeral Home in Plant City, Florida. Visitation will begin at 10:00 AM and the service will follow at 11:00 AM. “ Mom remembering when you first moved in with us and shared Daltons room. All the fun we had laying in bed holding hands and just talking. Remember when I was coming in the through the garage and you were going out and we scared each other so that we laughed to hard we almost peed our pants. I love you always.
