“ We share beloved memories growing up in Flagler Beach. School family from 5th grade to high school graduation '61. A reconnect after 50 years apart, found a rekindling of friendships and treasured memories. We love you,

“ A very special angel has gained her wings. You will always be my forever friend and partner in crime. There were so many great memories made with you and your beautiful family, I could write a book. We had always talked about that!
Fly high my friend. I will always love you, " Buzzard", and I will see you on the other side.
XOXO

“ Faye was my first (1st) cousin. We grew up together as we visited each other’s homes over the years. I remember going to basketball games with her in Bunnel as I recall. I went on dates with her and Kenny when I was just a kid. I loved Faye and will always remember that beautiful smile that was always on her face. That bubbly personality and person of character. I later appreciated her as a nurse and explained to me why she was who she was and said the things she said. Always the nurse. And later in life I more appreciated her commitment to Christ. I was also very fond of Kenny her husband as well. Probably twenty (20) or more years ago I flew down to see them from New Orleans. Am so glad I did now. And here is the kind of man Kenny was...He drove me up to Georgia so that I could see my mom. Just he and I. Now the two of them are in Paradise (heaven) together. Their bodies have been planted in the earth but their spirits and souls are very much alive. At the end of the Great Tribulation on this earth they will return to this earth with Christ in their new resurrected bodies to reign with Christ for a thousand years on this earth. In the meantime their bodies are planted here but, again, their spirits are with Christ awaiting the resurrection of their bodies. So, we haven’t seen or spoken to them for the last time...not if we truly believe the Bible and the resurrection. So, take your rest Faye and Kenny as we will see you again and probably very soon as Christ comes to snatch us away in an instant from this fallen world. My prayers are with the family as they naturally grieve this loss but may they grieve with hope.

Richard and I are praying for comfort, peace, and strength for all the family. We are blessed to have known her, even if for a short time. She was full of life, kindness, humor, and a sweet, gentle spirit and loved reading her Bible, singing hymns, and playing the piano. All of us in our Bible study class enjoyed having her there. Love and prayers, Laurie and Richard Collett
