“ De titi Rosin:

Tengo muchos recuerdos bonitos de mi hermano Félix. El me alcahuetaba mucho. Para ese tiempo el vivía en casa. El me enseñó a guiar en el “Jeep” de papi. Una vez me fui con el en el Jeep para buscar yerba para el ganado. El Jeep venía lleno de yerba y yo venía guiando. Nos encontramos con papi y nos dio tremendo regaño. Yo tenía 8 años. Era una persona muy buena.

“ So many fun memories with Welo. I would love going into the pigeon/ chicken coop with him to feed the birds. The coop was actually a garage in the middle of our South Milwaukee neighborhood, which didn't make the neighbors too happy. No one could keep the campo out of him. Even though I was a little freaked out the first time I watch him kill a chicken, I was mesmerized and I couldn't stop watching. He actually explained everything he was doing as he went along. It was pretty intense. I was probably about 7 years old and I was captivated by my teacher. I love animals and nature mostly because of my grandpa. Thank you Welo for spending time with me and showing me the things you loved. I'll always hold you and all the things I learned from you deep in my heart. I love you Welo. - Chuchi
