“ Mrs Frances was one of my mentors at Midway, she taught me the ins and outs of being a christian wife, and along with my in-laws, the meaning of preparing food for different occasions (making and bringing a whole meal and not just one dish) I and my family will miss her.

“ I am so deeply sorry for your family. I know what a sweet special lady Mee Maw was and I know how much she is loved. You are such a great family, I hate to think of you hurting. I know I can't take away the pain, but please know my heart breaks for you. Finding comfort in the fact that she is in Heaven, is still difficult when we miss our loved ones so much. Praying you will be comforted by your memories of a great woman, and knowing how close you all are, praying your love for her and each other will hold you through this difficult time. With love Michelle

“ You know to know Frances was to love her. I remember her helping out in VBS and all the kidding around we would do. One of my fondest memories is when I went to see her and bro. Ray and she had fixed supper with everything out of the garden. What a blessed memory of just sitting there fellowshiping with both of them. Bro. Gene

“ When I heard Ms Frances had passed I was overwhelmed with memories. She's always been in my life. I know she's with Mr. Ray and lots of family and friends and with her Jesus. May God bring you comfort and peace during this time. Love, Carmen
