“ My family and I have been good close friends with Frank and his Family. We moved into one of his homes in Bithlo in 1977. He was a wise funny man, always crackin jokes and just always in a good mood. I can remember doing so many things with the family weather it was going to get loads of dirt, church, or where ever the day needed to take us. Frank had grown to be like a second Dad to me. He will be very dearly missed. We love you all..
 Frank give Dad a big hug for me please... RIP Dad 5/03/01 and Frank 4/29/12 the greatest men figures in my life. You are both missed dearly..
