

Frank Johns

July 1, 2009

JOHNS, Frank, 57, of Plant City passed away July 1, 2009. He is survived by his mother, Addie Bowers; two daughters, Amy Morton and Kim Johns; four grandchildren; one brother; one sister, and several nieces and nephews. Visitation will be Mon. July 6, 2009 at 1pm at Hopewell Funeral Home with Services beginning at 2pm. Interment to follow at Memorial Park Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Daddy, i will miss and always love you. I hope you rest in peace. It just don't seem fair you seen me take my first breath and i saw you take your last. No more pain daddy. Love always your little girl.
Amy###imported-begin###amy morton###imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:30 AM

“ Amy and Kim I just want you to know that loosing someone you love is not easy, but with the love of your family and your friends you both will see your way through. Your dad will be missed by so many of us who loved him and still love you....Aunt Doris###imported-begin###Doris Bryant###imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:30 AM

“ Frank was more like a brother and he was one of my closest friends. May there be a Harley with your name on it in heaven. You will be missed.###imported-begin###James Johns###imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:30 AM

“ Sometimes we no longer have the ones we love here on earth, but they will forever watch over us from heaven....Rest in Peace Uncle Frank.....And Amy and Kim I am thankful for getting to spend time with you both, it has been way to long.....I Love You both and my God Forever Bless You###imported-begin###Pamela McCullough###imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:30 AM

“ Maybe because of where and how Frank and I were raised or our ages or being cousins or just luck, or all of the above...if I had it to live through again, I would never change one single thing about any of it. Reflecting, Frank was my best friend in the early years of my life. He was always fun to hang out with. Always the one every other kid in the neighborhood wanted to be around and do stuff with, or even to do nothing at all with. No matter what happened, I never had any hard feelings with him. I'll never forget how fortunate I was to grow up related to, and knowing Frank Johns. Amy and Kim, your dad talked about both of you a lot. Regardless what he was doing, you were in his thoughts. I do know for a fact, you both were the most important part of his life. Amy, Kim..I want you to know how proud of you I am for everything you did for your dad. Trust me on this one, for all of that, you will always be able to respect yourselves, and each other equally. I was very pleasantly stunned by your attention to detail, your courage, compassion, competence and thoroughness regarding everything I saw from both of you concerning your dad. I hope you will stay in touch. Love , David Branch###imported-begin##David Branch###imported-end##

January 17, 2011 at 08:30 AM