“I had the pleasure of meeting Gail at IMC in the 80's and worked, laughed, and had fun with her since then..... yes, she made working fun and adventurous. We retired around the same time and continued our fun escapades. I miss all that is Gail Lyn Ebdrup and will carry her in my heart forever. Ryan, Paula, Cole and Carly, I extend my deepest sympathy and condolences to you. She loves you with her whole heart forever. 💜 (her favorite color)

Gwen, mom always talked about the girls at work. She enjoyed the many meals and friendships. Thank you being a great friend.

“ I had the fortune of working closely with Gail for almost 15 years at IMC / Mosaic. Gail was a generous loving person who cared deeply for others. Gail often spoke about her family, she loved her sons and was very proud of them. Gail was so proud of her grand kids Carly and Cole, she loved them more than anything. She would show me pictures, tell me stories about things that happened at school with them, she always had something nice or funny to say about those kids. I will never forgot all the good times and memories we had at work, and the friendship we developed over the years. I will miss Gail but I know she is in a better place looking down on us and not suffering. God bless you Gail.

“ I was blest to know Gail first as a colleague at work; she was one of the first people I met at IMC. She was warm, welcoming and funny. We shared fun, lighthearted times as well as times Gail had health problems and then her son and mother and dad passed, so there were heartbreaking times, too. She was always a beacon of Light no matter what was going on. Sometimes misunderstood, always interesting, intellectually curious, incurably hopeful, generous, good hearted, possessed simplicity and complexity, absolutely adored her family unconditionally. Gail will always be with me in spirit, and will be a model of one who loved the Lord quietly, sweetly, deeply.

“ I was blessed to get to call Auntie Gail my Aunt. She was a link to my own mother as they were best friends. Hearing her stories of my mom were very comforting. May they find each other and be the best of friends again.

“ I was blessed to know and experience a side of my Auntie Gail most didn't. She loved me and I loved her. She would do my hair, let me put on all of her jewelry and play in her make up at times. I wasn't fooled by her hard shell because I knew the loving side of her!
