Gary Giles, 65, of Brandon, born on September 11, 1959, in Allentown, Pennsylvania, entered into eternal rest on December 21, 2024. He loved to bring joy to others whether it was through his unique sense of humor or his classic cat memes. He was a proud business owner and a veteran of the United States Air Force. He is survived by daughters, Sierra Murray (J.T.) of Rincon, Georgia and Raven Brett (Benjamin) of Rincon, Georgia; grandchildren, Ruby, Josie, and Harvey Murray; brother, Greg Giles (Deborah) of Seffner; nieces, Haley Sisanh (Amir), Katie Dinisman (Mitch), and Samantha Giles; nephew, Michael Giles; and his loving cat, Negan. “ When I moved to Tampa 20 years ago Gary was one of the first friends I made. To know him is to love him. How can you not. The twisted sense of humor, the pranks, his laugh. He became the extra annoying big brother I didn't know I needed. I have a lifetime of memories of good times and laughs and he was always there if you needed him. He'd act like a tough guy but had a heart of gold and once you were a friend you were always a friend for life. My heart is broken and I am saying prayers and sending love to all of the family and his friends. I will miss you more then you know but you will never be forgotten. I just hope he knew how many peoples lives he touched. We will miss you

“ Your love & compassion for others will remain deep within my heart Gary. We always joked about being bi-polar opposites although we thought a lot alike. I’ll remember you forever & always and the beautiful magical memories you left behind, my Virgo bud! God Bless & watch out for all your loved ones as they find comfort in knowing you now soar in God’s Secret Place.

Gary touched more lives than he imagined and he will be missed by many.

While we weren't the type of friends who sought out each other's company, Gary always greeted me warmly when we ran into each other at live music venues. We bonded on Facebook through our shared values and I always enjoyed his sense of humor.

Rest in Peace Gary. May your family find comfort in knowing you're pain free in the embrace of unconditional Love.
