“ Mrs. Leitner was like " another Mother " to me as I was growing up in Plant City. She was always welcoming and warm. I don't think I ever remember her without a big smile on her face . She was a sweet, sweet person and loved by all ! I will be keeping you all in my heart today as you say goodbye to this precious soul. God's blessings.... Ginny Galloway McLeod.

Hearing this news males me very sad. Having grown up next door to the Leitners, on Gordon Street, brings many wonderful memories. Jenny certainly had an influence on my life. She was a wonderful lady and will be greatly missed. I believe she was the last surviving parent from our close knit neighborhood.
