“ I have always admired my Uncle Bill. His humor, character, and values that his life stands for has always been a inspiration to me. His whole family is just one of many of God's special blessings to me in my life. As I ponder these thoughts, I know my Uncle Bill is everyone's Uncle Bill! He and my Aunt Cookie are just precious, loving family to me and many others as well. With Uncle Bill's passing, I know our great loss is his great gain, because he is with Jesus and enjoying heaven and all those wonders we cannot begin to fathom pain free! It is always hard to have to say so long for now, but because of God's most wonderful promise, we know we will see him again in a little while. Until then, we will always love and remember our Uncle Bill!
