The first time I met Uncle Wayne I was in either the first or second grade. He came over to our house with Aunt Mary Jo and told my sister, Brenda and I that he had laid in bubble gum and could we peel it off his back. Little did we know, because we were naive, that he had a sunburn. Aunt Mary Jo was our babysitter when our mom was working. I loved uncle Wayne with all my heart and I will miss him so much.
