“ Hubert's mother, Pyro Gause Snapp, was my 6 grade teacher. Pyro's brother, Archie was married to my first cousin Doris Castleberry. Hubert favored the Gause side of family and had their wonderful, booming laugh. Hubert will be greatly missed by all that knew him. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. It was a pleasure to come to his school as he made us feel welcome and appreciated our assistance. My prayers are with your family.

“ Robert & I will never forget when our youngest son was in a wreck on his 17 Birthday near Mr Snapp's home on south 39, Hubert was sitting on his porch and he counted the number of times the car rolled over (4). Our son lived but it changed all our lives from that day forward. Just always remembered Mr Snapp was a part of that memory for us! May He Rest In Peace!

“ Oh Snapp! Mr Snapp was my principle at Springfield Elementary School. When I was in the first grade me and two boys got into a food fight because the boys threw his green peas at me, so I slurped up my mashed through my straw and spit them at them. Off to the office we went. Mr Snapp whooped me with his wooden paddle and the boys got the glass paddle. Needless to say I never got another whooping in school again. Lol.

“ Mr, Snapp was my 5th grade teacher at Wilson Elementary, he was one of those teachers you never forget. The best memorie of him was I tripped someone on purpose when we were playing ball. Later on he called my Grandparents who raised me and told them what I had done my Grandfather told him to do what he thought was right. Mr, Snapp told me he was going to paddle me, and trust me I truly deserved it. After he paddled me he said I was the only girl he ever paddled and it hurt him. But he loved me and wanted me to know there was consequences for Making bad decisions. I will never forget that day I truly believe he helped me to be the person I am today. Love you Mr, Snapp.

Loved Mr. Snapp. He hired me in 1989 to work as an aide at Springhead Elementary. His wife was also my teacher at plant city high in 1970. He loved to fish... he will me missed. ❤️
