“ To George's family, I am so sad to hear George, Sr is no longer with us. I'm George's first son's (George Ray Thomason, Jr. 49 yrs. old) wife. I've been trying to locate George, Sr. since 2010 and haven't had any success in finding him. It would have been an honor to meet him but I guess it's too late now. George, Jr. has 2 lovely daughters (one is 18 years & the other is 14 years old). George, Sr. is now with his second son (Thomas Thomason) in heaven who died in August of 1997. He was 29 yrs. when he entered into God's glory. Hope one day we can meet the whole Thomason Family. Maybe when we are in Florida visiting Disney World we can get together & meet. I send my condolences and love to the whole family in honoring an amazing person (George, Sr.). Love, Loida from Illinois.

“ George was not just someone who I knew through friends or acquaintances. George was my father in law. He was so much more than that though. When he spoke, you listened. Even though you didn't always want to hear what he had to say, you knew it was right. He told it how it was. He didn't give in or entertain things that weren't important to what was truth. He was a great man who raised 3 beautiful and honorable men, one of which I am so lucky to be married to. I see George in my husband and his brothers characteristics and demeanors. He will truly hold a special place in my heart forever and always. I will miss you more than you will ever know. Love , squirell girl

“ Dear Marlene, I know that you and your family have been through a lot. It is so hard when the body cannot keep up with the mind and the spirit. I am so sorry for your loss. I hope that you all find comfort in your many memories of George, and that although there will surely be tears, that there are also smiles and laughs as you remember your wonderful husband, father, grandfather and friend. My deepest sympathies.

Shane..all of your co-workers at Tipp City School are thinking and praying for you and your family. It isn't easy to lose a parent. There will be good days and bad days ahead..yet knowing your dad will suffer no more will bring peace.. Find strength in the promises of the Bible; You will meet again in heaven.
