“ My sympathies to the entire Sapp (and extended) family. I met and worked with Gerald several years ago. I last saw him about 2-3 yrs. ago. Whenever I hear the term "Southern Gentleman" Gerald is always the 1st person who comes to mind. He definitely had character and integrity and was honest to a fault. Just a wonderful human being! I considered him a friend. He will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to know him. God Bless Him and his entire family.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. I knew Gerald for many, many years. As my two sons, Kenny and Mike played Little League Baseball he was their Coach. Coach Sapp had more patience and understanding than anyone I knew. The whole team loved him. My husband and Gerald were competitors when they raced their stock cars at Auburndale Speedway but remained the best of friends off the track. Gerald always had a cigar in his mouth and one time when he was in a wreck at the Speedway he was asked where his cigar was and he said with a smile, "Guess I swallowed it". When my husband and oldest son passed away Gerald was there for me. He is someone that will always be remembered.
