“ Gladys was a wonderful woman of God. She was my second mom. I will miss her so much. On Monday I was rubbing her forehead and she finally opened one eye and said HEY DARLING. She always called me darling. I told her I loved her and she shook her head yes. I will always remember my last words with her. She loved her husband and kids so much. She was a very loving and caring person. Our loss is Heaven's gain - she is with Jesus and my honey, Ray (who she also loved very much).
